THE TYPOGRAPHICAL EX-CURSION.

KITRELL'S SPRINGS.

SPEECHIFYING.

THE FESTIVITIES.

All arrangements having been systematically perfected by the various Committees, the entire Raleigh Typographical Union, with their invited guests, many of whom were ladies, embarked on the mail and passenger train of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, on the morning of the 4th, destined for Kittrell's Springs.

The Superintendent of the road, Capt.
A. B. Andrews, ordered the best coaches he had "in the shop" for the use of the "Union," and the trip to Kittrell's was as pleasant and agreeable as it was in the nature of things so to be, considering the intensely warm weather.

Arriving at Kittrell's station, the visitors got aboard the Enry line of hacks and were transported over to the far famed Blackhall Hotel, near the Springs.

The Major, who understands the first as well as the last principle of Hotel keeping, courteously received his guests and provided each and every one with rooms, where after performing the necessary ablutions, after the dusty trip, repaired to the spacious ball room, the guests and visitors on one side and the union formed on the other side of the rostrum.

Dr. G. W. Blackhall, introduced his old friend Major J. P. H. Russ, of this city, who welcomed the Union to the Springs, and on the part of the Messrs.
Blackhall offered them the unreserved
hospitalities of the place.

The Major's speech was in full keeping with his usual happy and felicitous style, and seemed to heighten the general good feeling which had already characterized the reunion of the Union.

N. B. Broughton, Esq., introduced to the audience Capt. W. H. Finch, who replied to the welcome of the Messrs.
Blackhall, on the part of the Union.

In his beautiful and appropriate address, he paid a well merited tribute to the great popularity of the Messrs.
Blackhall, as hoteliers. He excused himself from a long speech by saying that his situation was peculiarly embarrassing; he well knew the power of the press, but felt it much more sensibly when he found himself at the mercy of two reporters.

After the speech of Capt. Finch, Gen.
Robt. Ransom, who was present,
was called out by the Union.

The Gen. returned his thanks for the compliment as expressed by the call,
and after a few eloquent remarks complimentary to the craft, retired amidst great applause.

The Hon. R. H. Smith, of Halifax, was next called out. He said though he had no idea of being called on, and was therefore unprepared for a speech, yet he always regarded it a pleasant privilege to address the working men of the country. His speech was enthusiastically received by both the Union and visitors as evinced by the frequent applause, during his short but well timed and well pointed address.

E. C. Woodson, was next called upon.
He had nothing to say, said it and retired.

Letters were then read from Gov. W.
H. Holden, regretting his inability to attend, and Capt. S. T. Williams, who had been selected to deliver the annual oration, and was prevented from attending by professional duties in Raleigh.

Mr. Gilbert, presented the excuse and regrets of Messrs. Nichols & Gorman who were unable to "be with us"
on this occasion.

This closed the reception exercises and the craft with their wives and sweet hearts spent the balance of the forenoon in rambling through the beautifully shaded groves and walks.

The Dinner was announced at 2 o'clock. The Union marched into the large dining room in a body and notwithstanding the large number present the accommodations were amply sufficient and all were comfortably seated. The dinner in no respect could have been excelled by any Southern Hotel, and we were pleased to witness the systematic training of the servants,
the general convenience of the dining room, the culinary department, &c., and the superior administrative ability of Major Blackhall as a hotelier.

Before dinner the match game of ten-pins, for a silver cup, resulted in a victory for Col. J. N. Bunting, who made 156, on a ten frame. The Ball opened at 5 o'clock, music by the Kittrell's band.

till 9 o'clock, when an hour's intermission was given for supper. The supper ended, the dance was resumed and continued till the hour of departure, 12 o'clock, when the entire party re-embarked on the special train sent down from Raleigh for them, and reached home safely at 2 o'clock, A. M.

The 2nd annual excursionists of the Raleigh Typographical Union will long remember the 4th of July, 1872, as a day fraught with many pleasures, and one of peculiar interest. The Managers deserve especial praise for the good order that characterized the entire day's doings. We never heard one discordant word during the entire day or night, general good feeling prevailing, everybody enjoyed it, and joy, mirth and pleasure reigned supreme.

We spent much of our time in examining the grounds, noticing the many new improvements that have recently been added to the hotel, its general arrangements, which we propose to furnish our readers at another time.

Among the Summer visitors we observed sojourning at the Springs, were Hon. R. H. Smith, and family, of Halifax, Hon. M. W. Ransom's family, of Northampton, Gen. Robt. Ransom and family, formerly of Wilmington, Gen.
R. F. Hoke and family, of this city, Capt. H. Lee Tillery, of Halifax. Many other families from Eastern Carolina are daily expected and there is every indication of the largest and most successful season ever before known at Kittrell's.

PROGRESS OF THE BIBLE WORK.

The Rev. P. A. Strobel, Bible Agent, has furnished us with the following items, showing the progress of his work in this State:

On Thursday evening 27th of June, the Agent attended the anniversary of the Gold Hill Bible Society, in the Methodist church at that place and addressed a large and attentive audience.
The following officers were chosen:

E. MAUNEY, President. DR. R. A.
SHIMPOCK, Cor. Sec'y F. H. MAUNEY,
Treasurer and Depository.

This Society has not been very efficient, but there is every prospect of more activity and earnestness in the future. The Executive Committee gave the Agent an order for $80 worth of books to replenish the Depository, this shows some signs of life. On Saturday the 29th of June, the Agent attended the Western Conference of the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina, in the Lutheran church at Concord and presented the claims of the Bible cause. The Conference unanimously endorsed the Agent's work and commended him and the cause to the support of the churches.

On Sunday evening, July 30th, the Cabarrus County Bible Society held their anniversary in the Lutheran Church at Concord. The Rev. D. B. Burton, president, and A. J. York, Esq., acted as Secretary. The Rev. Mr. Mc-Kimmon, of the Presbyterian Church, conducted the religious services. The Chairman made a brief but earnest appeal on behalf of the Bible cause, and then introduced the Agent, who addressed the audience at length. Addresses were also made by the Rev. Mr.
McKimmon, of the Presbyterian, and
Rev. C. H. Bernheim, of the Lutheran Church. The audience, which was very large, seemed deeply interested.

The following officers were chosen:
Rev. D. Burton—President.
A. J. York—Secretary and Treasurer.
C. H. White—Depository.

This Society has had an Agent carrying the country two months, and he will be continued until the county is thoroughly explored and supplied.
They gave the Agent an order for about $150 worth of books to replenish the Depository.

On Tuesday evening, the 2nd July,
the Agent held a Bible Meeting in the Methodist Church at High Point. The Society was re-organized and the following officers chosen:

J. L. Pleasant—President.
W. H. Ragan—Cor. Secretary.
W. C. Denny—Treasurer and Deposi-
tary.

This Society has been in rather an apathetic state. They gave the Agent an order for $30 worth of books to replenish their Depository, and it is hoped that more activity will be manifested in the future.

THE GLORIOUS 4th IN RALEIGH.—
The ringing of the bell over the Market House at 4 o'clock, A. M., the firing of about $100 worth of fire crackers, a desultory artillery firing at Camp Russel and a street full of lounging negroes, was the only exhibition of the spirit of
'76 to be seen in the Metropolitan city of North Carolina. But for a street fight between some drunken negroes on Wilmington street there would have occurred nothing to distinguish the 4th
from any other day.

The glory of this great national day has sadly departed, and we say—let her slide.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Robt. M.
Furman, editor of the Franklin Courier,
visited our sanctum yesterday.

The Rev. Dr. W. F. Wingate, President of Wake Forest College, was in the city yesterday.

Gen. T. L. Clingman, the old war horse of Western Carolina, is in the city.

Rev. E. A. Strobel, the North Carolina Bible Agent, left yesterday evening for Greensboro.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Jas. Bryant, Esq., had his arm cut off in a planing mill on the plantation of Robt. Rowland, Esq., near this city, on Thursday the 4th.

The amputation was skillfully performed by Dr. E. Burke Haywood and the patient was doing well yesterday.

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872
Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine."

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, economy, and the perfect manner in which it "helps" to those of us with large families, it is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in a day, what would have taken two of our hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., and some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of ticking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost.

Yours &c.

GREAT MASS MEETING IN RALEIGH.

We are requested to state that there will be a grand mass meeting in Raleigh, on Tuesday, July 16th, of Conservatives, Democrats and Liberal Republicans, which will be addressed by distinguished speakers from all parts of the country.

Hon. Carl Schurz, Senator Trumbull, Gen. Francis P. Blair, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and other eminent orators have been invited, and are expected to be present.

It is desired to make this affair one of the most imposing demonstrations that has ever been held in North Carolina.

RADICAL KU-KLUX!

ATTEMPTED MURDER OF A DEMOCRATIC EDITOR.

CAPT. BIGGS, OF THE TARBORO SOUTHERNER, ASSAILED BY A MOB.

HIS LIFE SAVED WITH MUCH DIFFICULTY.

The Murderous Plot Pre-concerted.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily News.]

TARBORO, N. C., July 4.

The 4th of July was observed here to-day by a large crowd of negroes.

Capt. Biggs, of the Southerner, was present as a reporter.

He was assailed by a large number of negroes and saved his life with difficulty, of having exhausted all his weapons.

It is certain the attack was planned before-hand.

Capt. Biggs escaped with a few slight scratches.

The authors of the outrage are known.

II.

The people of North Carolina will not with indignation the above intelligence of a brutal and cowardly attempt to murder a citizen of this State by a crowd of infuriated and demoniac radicals.

No cause is alleged for this great outrage, and the fact that the plan was pre-concerted is proof conclusive that a conspiracy had been formed to put to death a well known and much esteemed citizen of the County of Edgecombe.

The radicals of that County no doubt hate Capt. Biggs for his bold and fearless defence of Democratic principles, and for his exposure of Radical villainy and corruption.

The dispatch states that the authors of the conspiracy are well known. They should be at once held to answer for their shameful and dastardly conduct.

We counsel moderation and also discretion to low under provocation and wrong. The people of this State have been subjected from time to time to great and aggravated insults and cruelties.

The Democratic party has in every instance appealed to them to bear with moderation and patience these indignities. If Ku Klux outrages have been committed by individual members of our party, they have been done against the advice of our leaders. We remember the address of our Executive Committee, written by the great and lamented Dixon, and signed by Merrimon and others, calling upon our people in 1870, when innocent men were hung up by the necks like dogs, to forbear from acts of revenge and retaliation, and to endeavor to right their grievances by an appeal to the law and to the ballot-box.

Our party has never in convention or public meeting, endorsed or encouraged the violation of the law by Ku Klux or by any other society.

On the other hand, the last Radical State Convention publicly and officially proclaimed itself the ally of lawlessness and crime by endorsing unanimously the past course of Gov. Holden—including his Ku Klux war in 1870.

Again, the voice of the Democratic press would appeal to the people of North Carolina to act prudently, discreetly and calmly, during the present political campaign.

We are in the midst of an exciting contest. Our enemies are anxious for some pretext to charge us with violence and intimidation. They would like to spread before the country exaggerated and sensational accounts of fresh Ku Klux outrages and murders. This is their stock in trade, and without such factitious capital they will be deprived of every weapon of defence.

We denounce the Radical Ku Klux outrage at Tarboro as a wicked and desperate attempt to take the life of a political opponent from motives of hatred and malice.

We denounce it as an off-shoot of that spirit of lawlessness which is born of Radicalism, and flourishes most extensively in the hot beds of Radical soil.

We denounce this attempt at assassination as a cold-blooded, fiendish purpose, instigated by the lowest instincts of human nature, to stifle the freedom of the press.

THE RADICAL PARTY BREAKING TO PIECES IN WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA—THREE PROMINENT REPUBLICANS DECLARE FOR GREELEY!

Gen. R. M. Henry, Republican Solicitor of the Twelfth Judicial District, Maj. W. W. Rollins, President of the W. D. N. C. R. R., and G. M. Roberts, three leading and prominent Republicans in North Carolina, have, we understand, declared their intention of supporting Greeley for President.

General Henry has already taken the stump against Grant and in advocacy of Greeley's claims. He is one of the ablest and most influential of the Republican leaders in his section of the State, and his example will be followed by a large number of his party friends.

Indeed we hear that hundreds of those who have been affiliating with the Radical party in the West have determined to bolt from that corrupt and oppressive organization. After the Baltimore Convention, we shall see a general stampede from the Radical ranks of Republicans all over the country, who will take their position under the banner of Honesty and Reform.

Judge Merrimon will address the people of Alamance and surrounding counties at Company Shops, on the 31st inst.

GEN. CLINGMAN'S APPOINTMENTS.

Gen. T. L. Clingman will address his fellow-citizens at the several points stated below. His brigade was largely made up from some of these counties—a brigade which, while under his command for nearly three years, was in many arduous engagements, never broke in battle, and never failed to do its full duty in the hour of trial.

The General hopes to meet as many of his old comrades as may find it convenient to come out to the appointments indicated.

Goldensboro, Saturday, July 13th.

Bentonville Johnston county, Monday, July 15th.

Lumberton, Robeson county, Thursday, July 18th.

Fayetteville, Cumberland county, Saturday, July 20th.

Egypt, Chatham county, Monday, July 22nd.

High Point, Wednesday, July 24.

Rutherfordton, Saturday, July 27th.

Columbus Polk county, Monday July 30th.

Blue Church, Henderson county, Tuesday, July 30th.

RADICAL MALIGNITY.

The malignity with which Judge Merrimon, Judge Shipp, Maj. Graham, Gen. Leventhorpe and other prominent Democrats and Conservatives have been traduced and aspersed in a certain anonymous circular printed by the negro, Fred. Douglass, in Washington city, and scattered broadcast over North Carolina under the Congressional frank of John Pool, United States Senator, is calling forth great indignation and is already receding upon the radicals.

We understand Judge Merrimon is now in correspondence with Pool as to his agency in this dark and damning work of detraction and slander, and he will be held to a strict accountability for his agency in its circulation.

Pool will learn to his sorrow that he will not be allowed with impunity to calumniate the characters of some of North Carolina's best and most patriotic citizens.

GREAT MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE AT WELDON.

The Great Mass Meeting will take place at Weldon, N. C., on Friday, July 12th, instead of Saturday the 13th, as heretofore announced.

A grand time is anticipated. Senators Schuch, Franklin, and Blair, Messrs. Smith, and Thurman, Governor Walker and Col. J. W. Hinton, of Virginia, General J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, and Gov. Vance and Senator Ransom and other distinguished speakers are expected to address the people.

Preparations have been made for a large crowd, and there will also be music to enliven the occasion. Arrangements will be made for special trains from Raleigh, Wilmington, Petersburg and Portsmouth at reduced fare, and the fire companies of these cities will be invited to attend.

MEETING IN GRANVILLE.

There will be a Democratic Conservative meeting in Oxford on the 13th of July.

We hope our friends in Granville will bear this fact in mind and turn out en masse on the occasion.

We learn that a railroad meeting will take place on the same day, and that it is expected speakers from Virginia will address the railroad meeting and discuss the most feasible plan of getting a road via Oxford at an early day to connect with some point on the North Carolina Railroad.

MURKIN FOR NASH.

Another installment of funds from Nash county has been sent us for the Conservative Executive Committee, by Cicero W. Harris, Esq., editor of the Battleboro Advertiser. This is the second amount sent from Nash, and we understand that more will be forwarded soon.

Edgecombe has sent one hundred dollars, and is willing to send one hundred more, if required.

What are the large and wealthy counties doing that have not yet forwarded one dollar?

CHANGE OF APPOINTMENTS.

The appointments for Judge Merrimon and Shipp at Bethania, in Forsyth county on the 20th inst., and Healing Springs, in Davidson county on the 22nd inst., are re-called.

They will address the people, instead of at these points, at Midway, in Davidson county, on the 29th, and at Lexington on the 30th inst.

We learn that grand mass meetings and barbecues will be held on these occasions.

WRONG CREDIT.

In the Greensboro Patriot of July 4th, we find an editorial from the Raleigh News, headed "How the Radicals paid themselves," credited to our neighbor, the Sentinel.

However, as we occasionally see one of the Sentinel's editorials credited to the News, we presume it is about equal—all around.

THANKS.

Hon. Sion H. Rogers will please accept our thanks for a copy of the Report of the Ku Klux Committee, and also for the speeches of Hons. A. G. Thurman, of Ohio, and Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware, recently delivered in the Senate of the United States.

THE "GREAT OUTRAGES" IN MILTON AND YANCEYVILLE.

A TEMPEST IN A TEA POT.

THE ERA "ON THE RAMPAGE."

Mountains out of Mole-Hills.

The radical papers have cut most ridiculous figures about the recent occurrences in Caswell county.

The Era, the Radical organ in North Carolina, denounced the News and Sentinel because we were silent on the subject "of the outrage to the American flag and the insult to Capt. Settle."

We told that paper we preferred to await developments before charging disorder and crime upon any one. We wanted a fair statement of facts, and then if we were convinced that any members of our party had been guilty of violence or any infraction of the law, we would not spare even our friends.

These "great disorders" were telegraphed all over the North for political inst, to show that the spirit of Ku Kluxism had been revived by the nomination of Greeley, "that the murderers of John W. Stephens were again on the war-path."

The Greensboro Patriot of the 4th inst., contains full and reliable statements of both affairs in Caswell—at Milton and Yanceyville, and the sequel turned out just as we predicted. It was an exaggerated tale intended for a little Radical capital.

The Patriot says:

A RADICAL SENSATION.—In the last number of the New North State appears a most perverted and sensational account of what occurred at Milton and Yanceyville, on Friday 21st, and Saturday 22nd, ult. The spirit in which the article is written is evinced by the heading which runs thus in italics:

Full account of Democratic Roadmen—The Murderers of Stephens on the Rampage—The American Flag Outraged—Hon. Thomas Settle, President of the National Republican Convention, Grossly Insulted.

We had been disposed up to a recent date to give the editor of the New North State credit for a disposition to conduct his journal in a spirit of fairness and candor. We could overlook the tendency at times manifested to let partisan proclivities get the better of nobler impulses, because in the heat of political contests men are apt to permit their judgments to be warped and colored and say things which in their cooler moments they might wish undone and unsaid. Editorial blunders at men and parties are common subjects of attack; but when an innocent people are charged with malicious designs, and these charges spread industriously through the media taken up by partisan journals and magnified by competent judges, all of whom give unequivocal testimony to its excellence, I could not ask for a better illustration.

Very Respectfully,

W. G. SIMMONS.

RALEIGH, March 17, 1871.

MR. JAMES PIRSON:—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the real merits and excellence of your Pianos. Great Union Piano Co. I have used one of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1871, and cannot express in words how much I value it. The instrument keeps remarkably well in tune, and not a string has been broken. Hoping that the demand for your Pianos will never cease,

I am yours most respectfully,

OUR MURFREESBORO LETTER.

MURFREESBORO, N. C., July 4th, 1872.

Dear News:

On Tuesday evening last, Rev. Levi Thorne, of Newbern, delivered the annual sermon to the graduating class at C. B. F. Institute, before a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Thorne is not a pleasant speaker, but his sermon was well written, and gave very general satisfaction. Portions of it were sublime and beautiful, and the interest of the audience was well sustained throughout. The excessive hot weather detracted no little from the enjoyment of the evening, but the preacher managed to keep the attention of his audience in spite of the unfavorable surroundings.

Yesterday, Wednesday, was the commencement day at the Institute, and everything went a real gala day appearance. We were pleased to see in attendance a large number of persons from the middle sections of the State, all of whom went away much pleased with our village and citizens. Wake, Johnson and Franklin were represented, and now that our friends in that section are becoming convinced that this is a healthy section, we shall expect to see many beauties from the hills gracing the halls of the Institute.

The graduating class consisted of nine young ladies, two of whom are from Wake, one from Catawba, another from East Bend, in full view of the grand old Pilot mountain. Their essays were of a high order, displaying fine culture and literary taste. We wish them all much success, and now that they have stepped forth into the realities of life, we are sure their influence will be productive of much good. Educated woman has a refining and ennobling influence, and we are proud to see our people endeavoring to educate their daughters.

Rev. J. C. Hiden, of Wilmington, delivered the annual literary address, selecting as his subject, "Simplicity." The speaker, we were glad to see, did not read his address, simply relying upon very limited notes to call up the subject matter of his discourse. Mr. H. is a genius, and an independent thinker who does not hesitate to cut loose from old channels of thought. He does not believe in "accepting the situation" because it is popular, but considers it more nearly to stand up for truth in spite of the alignments of power and the unpopularity of simplicity, did not receive any favors at his hand, but on the contrary he was old fogey enough to prefer the good old plantation and familiar songs of his youth. His appeal in behalf of the destructive social status of the South was eloquent, and met a responsive echo in the heart of every true Southern man. Salutes of wit, and several amusing anecdotes, served to sustain the eager attention of the audience, and no one seemed to be fatigued though his speech consumed more than an hour. At the conclusion of the morning exercises, Dr. McDowell read his merit roll, containing the names of those who had not been absent from any duty for the time specified. Misses Decker, Furt and Wingate, of Wake, had been absent from any duty for six sessions—including in that time their whole stay at the Institute. At least half of the young ladies had been absent from no duty during the year. Some others had only been absent a few times. Dr. McDowell stated that the Board of Stockholders had in contemplation the erection of another building to accommodate the increasing patronage of the institution. Last night the spacious and elegant chapel, splendidly decorated with paintings, was a work and evergreen, was filled to its utmost capacity with beauty and fashion to cheer the annual Summer concert. As we stood and surveyed the assembled beauty on the rostrum, we could not express our admiration, but gave vent to our appreciation in several very suggestive adjectives. It was of a truth an elegant scene, and there was beauty of feature and form enough to captivate the heart of the most obdurate bachelor. The concert was pronounced elegant by judges, and could not be otherwise when presided over by that elegant lady and accomplished musician, Mrs. Mojnec. An experience here of several years has fully demonstrated that it is by no means necessary that some German or other foreigner should be employed to teach our young ladies music. Ladies can be obtained who will do the work most effectively and elegantly.

The number in attendance has been very large, plainly showing the hold upon the people which this school has obtained.

Capt. C. W. Grandy, Radical candidate, and Maj. Jesse J. Yeates, Conservative candidate for the First Senatorial District, opened the campaign here to-day. The notice having been given but a few days, the crowd was not very large, but a respectable number of both parties were in attendance.

There is a very apparent difference in the two candidates. Maj. Yeates deals in facts and figures—while Grandy endeavors to appeal to the negroes, to inflame them against the whites. Maj. Y. led off, but in his reply to Grandy he completely flayed him. He made him confess that he voted against Grant and for Seymour, and brought to bear very effectively upon him, a card issued during the war, in which he spoke of his beloved colored friends as "ignorant negroes." Grandy has no regard for facts, but drives madly on regardless of consequences. Chamberlain and Skinner, the other candidates, were not present, but we learn that Skinner will join Maj. Yeates to-morrow or next day. Col. Carter and his competitor, Cobb, will speak here next Wednesday. We shall be on hand and report for you.

HERTFORD.

OUR WILSON LETTER.

WILSON, N. C., July 2, 1872.

Dear News:

The week beginning July 24th, was an eventful one, full of gratifying interest to the people of Wilson and the surrounding country, being the commencement week of those two large and flourishing schools, the Wilson Female Collegiate Seminary and Wilson Collegiate Institute.

The exercises alternated so that the people could witness them both. Examinations, thorough and rigid, occupied the first days of the week. These were not interesting to the general public, but highly so to the patrons and pupils, and we have heard it said by those capable of judging that no more progress, promptness and efficiency were ever evinced in any college than in ours.

Wednesday evening the College chapel of the Female Seminary was fairly ablaze with the beauty and culture of Eastern North Carolina, every available space in the spacious room completely packed, all eager to hear and see the musical opera, the Twin Sisters. The music, instrumental and vocal, has never been surpassed in this community, and scarcely in any other; and how could it have been otherwise with such leaders as that paragon of excellence in song, Miss E. Ivey Smith, the music teacher, and the accomplished lady who did the instrumental, Miss Clara Hoyt, supported by the pupils of the Seminary, a luminous galaxy of beauty and sweet-voiced singers, personating gypsies and fairies. So perfect was the enchantment that the beholder might have been excused the temporary idea that he was in the fairy land.

Thursday at 8 o'clock P. M. Frederick Phillips Esq. of Tarboro was introduced to the thronged chapel by Col. T. S. Keman as the orator selected by the faculty and board of trustees to deliver the annual address.

The address was full of matter of interest, was elegant in thought and diction and delivered in a style that showed the speaker an orator of no mediocre attainments. The fine and appreciative audience by its rapt attention showed to the distinguished speaker that his labor was not in vain. After the speech, Prof. Hooper read the reports of proficiency of the various pupils entitled to distinction. It is regretted that the names and relative degrees conferred are not at hand. Friday morning 28th, the immense concourse of people crowded the audience room of the Collegiate Institute. Mr. Hassell, to hear the annual address by Rev. Joseph H. Foy, of Kingston, at 11 o'clock after the rendition of an appropriate and charming piece of music by Miss E. A. Bridges, the accomplished and highly gifted music teacher, Mr. George W. Blount in appropriate terms introduced the orator of the day who enchaind the audience for more than an hour with an as highly finished and scholarly production as it has been our pleasure of hearing for a long time. His subject was the Co Education of the sexes, and his argument was complete and convincing, (taking the theoretical view of the subject) notwithstanding much might be said against its practical application in our time and day.

Prof. Hassell's school, however, bears unmistakable evidence of the success of the experiment heretofore. The young men showed elegance of manner and propriety of deportment seldom seen in a school from which females are excluded, and young ladies lacked none of the queenly graces or elegant appointments seen in strictly female schools.

Our people have, therefore, their choice of schools in Wilson; those who prefer the strictly female can find no better than Prof. Hooper's, and those who prefer co-education of the sexes can certainly find nowhere an equal to Prof. Hassell's. With a roll of between sixty and seventy young men, Prof. H. has had less trouble with bad boys than can be reported from any other school. And our Town people can bear testimony to their orderly, quiet deportment—there never having been any disorderly conduct for the whole term of the existence of the school here. This is indeed refreshing when our minds revert to the days of 1860 when we had located here a Polytechnic Military School, when no one, on retiring for the night, knew that he would find his gates, small houses, henrosts and pig sties in proper order in the morning. The commencement exercises closed with declamation and dialogues by the young men, interlarded with music by the young ladies. The large concourse of visitors went to their homes with feelings of proud satisfaction and kindly feelings to the hospitable people of Wilson.

Saturday was a big day in Wilson, too. In the Baptist Grove, a stand having been erected and decorated with flags and mottoes, a large crowd from the town, county and surrounding counties gathered around to hear Gov. Vance and Gen. Ransom, of the United States Senate. Long and well were the people entertained by these inimitable speakers.

Sunday morning, Rev. James C. Hiden, of the first Baptist Church of Wilmington, preached in the Baptist Church to a large audience, and again at night, when he, assisted by Dr. Wm. Hooper, performed the ceremony of ordination of Elder George W. Newell, the newly elected pastor of the Baptist Church here. Thus ended and began a week in Wilson long to be remembered—may there be many such.

GREELEY AND BROWN.

Grant's Administration
Has ruined the nation,
And broken its liberties down;
But these we'll recover
Ere autumn is over
By voting for Greeley and Brown.
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown!
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown!
But these we'll recover
Ere autumn is over
By voting for Greeley and Brown.

Grant's minions may swifter,
And each carpet-bagger
His conduct with infamy crown,
But sooth they'll give place
To a much better race,
Who will serve under Greeley and Brown.
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown! etc.

Grant, now below par,
Still smokes his cigar,
But his face is screwed up in a frown,
For he sees at a glance
That for him there's no chance
In a contest with Greeley and Brown.
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown! etc.

Though office and power
On his friends he may shower,
And voters with whiskey may drown;
Make the Treasury bleed
To supply his great need,
He'll be beaten by Greeley and Brown.
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown! etc.

Against Grant's cigar
And his record in war—
His only passport to renown—
Greeley's hat we will place,
With his brains for the race.
And with Greeley and Brown,
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown! etc.

And 'tis not surprising,
For people are rising,
In hamlets and villages and towns;
Resolved, one and all,
They will set the great ball
In motion for Greeley and Brown.
Hurrah for Greeley and Brown!
Our rights we'll recover
Ere autumn is over,
And conquer with Greeley and Brown!
